

PREACHING CURRICULUM

SERMON TITLE: Fearlessly on Mission

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 10:26-35

'...the Lord has placed us on this earth to declare Him, no matter the circumstances...'

'...this world is a declawed, defanged, decrepit predator...'

1

REVIEW THE SERMON

Why, is it important that we recognize the Lord will expose all lies with His glorious gospel?

How do we proclaim in the light, and declare from the rooftops?

In what ways might we sometimes hide the light of the gospel a little too much in our interactions with unbelievers, especially when it comes to the sin part? What might cause us to do so?

What does it mean to truly proclaim Christ?

2

ASSESS YOUR LIFE

How does God bless you when you go forward with His message regardless of the consequences?

Do you recognize that faithlessness (cowardice) is an egregious sin before God? Why do we rarely put that in our own list of what is egregious?

Do you believe that God sees you and knows you and will come through for you? How does that belief hold you in times of suffering?

3

APPLY THE TRUTH

How do we live fearlessly while on mission for Christ?

How do we acknowledge God before men? Have you ever been in the situation where acknowledging God before men (the world) could have or did cause you some temporal discomfort or loss?

If God has always been faithful, why should we fear the world? How do we grow in fearless-
