OUR SONG OF THANKS PSALM 107:1-43

"...Those who have experienced God's redemption are called to say "Thank-you" to God..."

1

REVIEW THE SERMON

How do we see those who have experienced God's redemption called to say "thank You" to God in this passage? _____

What are the four distinct groups of people to whom God demonstrates His steadfast love throughout vs. 4-8; 9-16; 17-22; 23-32? To whom did they turn to in their distress? _____

Why did the author of this Psalm continually remind the people of God's character? _____

2

ASSESS YOUR LIFE

How do you develop a heart-level attitude of thanks to God? _____

If you consider the four distinct groups of people in this passage, which group do you relate to? What is your own story of crisis, crying out, God changing you, and His power at work in your own life? Do you ever feel like your sin is too great for God to forgive? If so, what does this tell you about your understanding of God's character? _____

Where does the thankfulness of God come from? Are we born with it? Is it innate in us? Or do you believe that it's taught? Explain your position as best you can. _____

3

APPLY THE TRUTH

How do we see each of the four groups go through crises; followed by crying out to God; followed by change; and finally culminating in a call to thanksgiving vs. 4-32? How can we do the same? _____

How do we as followers of Christ grow in our understanding of His character so that a true heart-level attitude of thankfulness to God is developed? _____

How is the expression of your thankfulness in response to what He has done a powerful part of your testimony of who He is? How can we take what we know to be true about God’s character to teach others to be thankful? _____

4

COMMIT THIS WEEK

How will you attend to these things vs. 43? How will you say “Thank-you” this week? _____
