HOLY FURNISHINGS - 1 KINGS 7:14-51

“There is no one more worthy of worship than the Lord.”

1 REVIEW THE SERMON

What did the pillars of the temple communicate to the Israelite worshippers? What were they supposed to communicate about God? What do their names mean, Jachin and Boaz? _____

What was the bronze “sea” supposed to communicate about God, His attributes, our nature, and how we are supposed to relate to God? How was the use of water in the sea used for priestly service? What is the connection between this and baptism? _____

What connection was there between Solomon’s Temple and his treasury? What did this connection communicate to the people of Israel? _____

2 ASSESS YOUR LIFE

What does it mean that God has established you? That in Him there is strength? Do you believe this? What happens when you’ve forgotten these truths? _____

Why is it so important to prepare ourselves to worship God? Why is the worship so serious? How do you prepare yourself to worship God? What do you do on Saturday night or Sunday morning? _____

Do you consider your wealth (I.e. the things you own) belonging to God? What can separating “your belongings” and God’s belongings communicate about your worship and what does it communicate to those around you? _____

3 ASSESS YOUR LIFE

What can we do to remind ourselves often that God has indeed established us and that God is indeed our strength?

How should I view my wealth and treasures in relation to God? How should this reality affect the way I live and handle my possessions? _____

Moving forward, how can I better prepare to worship God on Sunday? What can I do or not do so that I can better approach God as my greatest treasure? _____

4 COMMIT THIS WEEK

How will you commit to better preparing yourself to worship God and honouring Him as your treasure this week?
