

PREACHING CURRICULUM

ABRAHAM: FAITH IN A SUBSTITUTE
HEBREWS 11:17-19 GENESIS 22:1-14,18

"True faith is open handed, obedient, and fully submissive to the plans of God."

1

REVIEW THE SERMON

'...the Bible is so much more than a book of moral teachings... it is a rich theology of atonement...'

How did God draw out Abraham's anxiety and stress through a test that would take him three days just to travel to?
How did Abraham react to these commands of God? _____

What connections do we see in the Genesis passage between Abraham and Christ? What is different? (I.e., how is this account a type of gospel message?) _____

2

ASSESS YOUR LIFE

How open handed have you been with your faith this past year, month, week? Do you find it difficult to walk in obedience and submission to God's plans for your life? Why or why not? _____

When have you seen your faith placed on the promise given, instead of being placed on the promise Giver? Have you ever been challenged in your faith through a blessing that had been removed? How did you respond? _____

3

APPLY THE TRUTH

"Here am I." is the faithful's constant reply to the commands of God.

How can you increase your faith so that your response to God's call is both submissive and immediate? What are some ways you can work toward a more faithful response this week? _____

How does your sanctification increase as you wait upon the Lord? _____

4

COMMIT THIS WEEK

"Hear am I" was Abraham's faithful response when God called. Will you commit to growing your faith so that your response will be like his this week? Think about the tangible things you need to do to accomplish this. _____
