

PREACHING CURRICULUM

FAITH IN A MIRACLE - HEBREWS 11:29-30
(EXODUS 14:14-18,21)

“Faith is courage with a noble goal, in a noble guide, who is God.”

1 REVIEW THE SERMON

What is similar and what is different between the Red Sea crossing and the circling around the walls of Jericho? _____

What is the correct relationship between courage and faith? What separates godly courage from worldly courage?

2 ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Do you struggle to believe God's Word at face value and as true? Do you tend to need proof and evidence before you believe God? (Explain your answer) _____

What obstacles are you presently facing or have you faced in the past that get in the way of your faithful obedience to Christ? _____

3 APPLY THE TRUTH

How can you better focus on your “noble goal” with your eyes fixed upon your “noble guide?” What can help you to build your courage as you do so? _____

What might God be asking you to do that seems foolish and impossible from an earthly perspective, yet you know He wants you to trust in Him? (Consider your answer very carefully and share it with your group) _____

4 COMMIT THIS WEEK

Considering what it is that God is asking of you this week, how will you put feet to this challenge in the days to come? (Think about this carefully as you consider, it may require you to step out in faith in ways you don't expect) _____
